WASHINGTON, Friday, May 1, 1863.

THE SALES OF FIVE-TWENTY BONDS.

The sales of Five-Twenty Bonds by Jay Cooke & Co. since the adjournment of Congress amount in round numbers to forty-five millions. Of this sum more than three-quarters was subscribed during the month of April. Perhaps ten millions more have been sold at the Treasury and the various Sub-Treasuries.

PROTECTION OF BOSTON HARBOR.

At the urgent request of Gov. Andrew, the line-of-steamship Ohio is to be armed, equipped and ordered to cruise off Boston Harbor.

IMPORTATIONS UNDER THE RECIPROCITY TREATY.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has the very important question before him as to whether articles brought into the country under the reciprocity treaty with Canada are liable to the excise tax. Canada merchants maintain that they are altogether exempt under the provisions of the treaty.

FOREIGN CONSULS AND THE EXCISE TAX.

A foreign Consul, resident in New-York, has raised the question whether he is not to be considered as representing his sovereign in such sense as to be entitled to enjoy the immunities of a Minister, as regards exemption from the Excise tax. The question has not been positively determined, but the indications are that his plea will not be held good.

ARRIVAL OF PRISONERS OF WAR AND CAPTURED DESERTERS.

Ten prisoners of war, and four deserters from Hawkins's Zouaves, captured at Warrenton, arrived here this evening.

ORGANIZATION OF A NEW ARMY CORPS.

The President has directed that the troops in Kentucky, not belonging to the 9th Army Corps, be organized into the 23d Army Corps, to be commanded by Maj.-Gen. G. L. Harshbarger.

GENERAL COURT-MARTIAL PROCEEDINGS.

The following is a summary of the proceedings before general Court-Martials in the Army of the Potomac:

Capt. Wm. H. Hogan, 2d Battery New-York Volunteer Artillery, convicted of defrauding the United States and sentenced to turn over a horse now in his possession to pay the value of another horse, and to forfeit all pay and allowances and be dismissed the service.

Assistant Surgeon W. W. Bidlack, 62d New-York, convicted of positive and willful disobedience of orders, sentenced to be cashiered and to forfeit all pay and allowance.

First Lieut. John Schroeder, 74th Pennsylvania, convicted of habitual drunkenness and conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman, sentenced to be dismissed the service.

Second Lieut. Joseph S. Pratt, Co. I, 1st Michigan, convicted of conduct prejudicial to good order and military discipline, and conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman, sentenced to be dismissed the service.

Capt. James A. Gault, Albert S. Haver and Benjamin F. Schaefer, 10th New-York, convicted of disobedience of orders and conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman, and the first named also of disrespectful language toward his superior officer, all sentenced to be dismissed.

Gen. Hooker, in a General Order, approves of the findings and sentences, and directs the order of the court to be carried into effect.

TRIAL BY A MILITARY COMMISSION.

W. Fisher, Andw. Cunningham, and John H. Garver have been tried before a military commission, the first for offering violence to an officer in the execution of his duty; the second for assaulting a sentinel while on duty; the third for giving information to the enemy. The sentence of the first is forfeiture of pay and allowances, and confinement for two months on the recommendation of the Commission, the circumstances attendant upon him being very strong.

THE CASE OF CHAPMAN PARCHER.

In the case John K. Parcher, Chaplain of 11th Pennsylvania, convicted by court-martial of absence without leave, that he did not return to duty until eight days after the expiration of his leave of absence, and sentenced to be dismissed the service with loss of pay and allowance. The Secretary of War has, in accordance with the recommendation of Gen. Hooker, remitted the sentence.

GOOD WEATHER.

The weather to-day is superb and bids fair to continue so for two or three days.

THE CHARGE OF FUTURE ENLISTMENTS.

A general order just issued from the Adjutant-General's office, provision is made that from and after May 1 all enlistments of volunteers shall be under the special charge and direction of the Provost-Marshal-General, and under the rules and regulations heretofore made, which are hereby continued in force, and such other rules of the department as may from time to time be made. All disbursing officers, and all other officers connected with the enlistment of volunteers, will report to him. Officers of regiments going out of service by reason of the expiration of their term may, with the consent of their respective Governors, re-enlist their regiments within thirty days for a term of two years, unless sooner discharged; and upon the regiments being filled up within thirty days as aforesaid the officers shall be restored, with rank as from the date of the original commissions. This however, will give no claim for pay from the time of mustering out to that of re-entering the service. The law provides for no bounty for men re-enlisting for two years, but a man who enlists for three years, unless sooner discharged, is entitled to one month's pay in advance upon the mustering of his company into the service of the United States, but after he shall have been mustered into and joined the regiment in the service, he is entitled to have a bounty of one hundred dollars, twenty-five dollars of which are to be paid in advance when his company is reorganized. Men thus enlisted for three years may at the discretion of the Governors of their respective States be assigned to duty with the regiments enlisted for two years. Hereafter regiments of volunteers leaving the field on account of expiration of their term of service will be permitted to take their arms and accoutrements to the place of discharge, to be delivered to the Governor of the State, or to officers appointed by him to receive them. The arms and accoutrements will be held subject to reissue to the men who re-enlist.

A CANARD BY SNEAK TRAITORS.

Rebel sympathizers started the absurd story to-day that Sigel (now in New-York) and his staff were captured.

THE CASE OF COL. D'UTASSY.

The case for the prosecution in the D'Utassy Court-Martial will be concluded to-morrow. About seventy witnesses are summoned for the defense, and their testimony will be commenced on Monday.

SANITARY CONDITION OF THE ARMY BEFORE VICKSBURG.

Mr. Olmsted and other members of the Sanitary Commission, who have recently returned from a protracted visit to the army before Vicksburg speak of it with high praise. It is well-offered. The percentage of sick, although larger than that of Gen. Hooker's army, is gratifyingly small. The Commissary Department has made arrangements by which to enable the men to have in lieu of a whole or a part of the regular army ration, vegetables, fresh meats, fish, cornmeal, &c. The following figures show how much was drawn of the articles named from Feb. 17 to March 14:

4,130 bush. potatoes, 3,000 gals. sour krent, 20,532 bush. milled, 2,000 gals. pickles, 1,300 pickled cabbages, 2,000 bush. corn, 1,000 bush. wheat, 20,532 bush. rye, 20,532 bush. barley, 20,532 bush. oats, 20,532 bush. clover, 20,532 bush. timothy, 20,532 bush. alfalfa, 20,532 bush. hay, 20,532 bush. straw, 20,532 bush. wood, 20,532 bush. charcoal, 20,532 bush. coal, 20,532 bush. fuel, 20,532 bush. oil, 20,532 bush. tallow, 20,532 bush. butter, 20,532 bush. cheese, 20,532 bush. eggs, 20,532 bush. poultry, 20,532 bush. game, 20,532 bush. fish, 20,532 bush. fruit, 20,532 bush. vegetables, 20,532 bush. herbs, 20,532 bush. spices, 20,532 bush. condiments, 20,532 bush. sundries, 20,532 bush. other articles.

The hospital transports on the Mississippi are described as in all respects superior to any that have been in use in the East. They are the "City of Memphis," "January," and "Nashville," which have comfortable accommodations, including conveniences for bathing and baking for 1,500 patients.

MATTHEW'S NEW HOTEL.

A beginning has been made in the work of tearing down buildings to make room for O. B. Matthews' new hotel, on the plan of the Brevoort, to stand on E street, near the Avenue, between Thirteenth and Fourteenth streets. It is to have 200 rooms and to be opened in September.

FROM GEN. ROSECRANS'S ARMY.

Reported Advance of Breckinridge—Position of the Entire Rebel Force—Attempt to Force Gen. Rosecrans to Concentrate his Lines.

MURFREESBORO, Tenn., Friday, May 1, 1863.

A deserter from the 2d Kentucky (Rebel), who left the regiment this morning, reports that Breckinridge advanced to Beech Grove and Hoover's Gap, 12 miles from here, on the Manchester Pike. He states that the entire Rebel force is now in position from Beech Grove, through War Trace, Guy's Gap and Shelbyville.

The supposed intention of Johnston is to hold the gaps and force Gen. Rosecrans to concentrate his lines. Little hope is entertained that Johnston will attack.

While dispatches detailing this activity on the part of the Rebels must be necessarily silent regarding ourselves, it must not be supposed that Rosecrans is idle or unprepared.
